Our inspiration for Elementary came from one of our most popular fabric lines. We frequently get e-mails asking when we are coming out with a second version of our first fabric line for Moda. Authentic. We generally don't like to repeat a collection using the exact same colors, so we thought we would do something similar to Authentic but change it up a bit. We kept the black, cream and tan, but replaced the lime green in the original collection with our new favorite color—a beautiful light blue. We love the result and think it compliments Authentic beautifully. The theme is very school-like, but not too juvenile. We love it for all different kinds of projects, especially those for boys. The Rugby pattern is perfect for either a baby quilt or graduation quilt—just use the year of the big event for the applique. We think the Picnic Plaid pattern may be our favorite. It is designed to make the finished quilt look like a gingham pattern. We hope you enjoy sewing with Elementary as much as we enjoyed designing it!
