

Sundrops

Corey Yoder

It took me many years to find my “happy fabric place”. When I began making quilts almost 15 years ago, I was drawn to darker colors – burgundy, dark green and navy – but over time, I began to prefer bright, primary colors and a lot of white. Today, I know the colors and motifs that get me every time, and Sundrops embodies everything I love. From the “sherbet-y” mix of colors to the flower-filled prints, I hope you love these warm, golden shades of coral, yellow, green and gray as much as I do.
