

Cultivate Kindness

Deb Strain

Gather happy moments.

Imagine driving down a country lane on a warm spring day. As you come over a small hill, you see a lovely farmhouse, and there in the sideyard is a vintage truck filled with colorful flowers. Seeing that was the inspiration for my new “farmhouse feel” collection.

Cultivate Kindness is filled with old trucks overflowing with beautiful flowers, set against gray accents so it fits this lovely trend in home décor. Coordinating patterns of shiplap, gingham and small scale florals make creative quilts, pillows and projects that bring a bit of farmhouse to your home – whether you live in the country or the city.
